

angel

good for business

stand alone terrorism insurance

intelligent online insurance solutions

With new increased limits of up to £250,000,000 per location and nil PD
excess as standard.

Angel offers an innovative way of covering its insureds' property following acts of terrorism whether their mortgage lender requires them to have the cover or they are just seeking peace of mind.

Angel can provide terrorism insurance for commercial and/or residential property or property portfolios, high net worth, construction risks and contract works and can provide cover within the United Kingdom, Channel Islands, Isle of Man and Northern Ireland.

Angel's standalone terrorism product offers many benefits including flexibility on premium, commission, policy period and the properties to be included for cover.

Angel's team of terrorism underwriters are available to discuss your client's specific needs or to tailor the policy to their requirements.

All available via Angel's sophisticated and yet easy to use online QuickQuote portal.
